Re: United States v. Kwan Miller
12 Cr 61 (JBW)

Dear Judge Weinstein:

Today, I received an ECF bounce from this Court confirming the grant of my request for an adjournment of the July 30th trial in Mr. Miller's case in order to provide me with time to review the enormous amount of discovery and prepare a defense. I apologize, but when I originally wrote to Your Honor seeking an adjournment, I should have included my availability in my letter. Your Honor adjourned Mr. Miller's trial to September 10, 2012, but I was previously ordered by Judge Dearie to commence a trial that same day in connection with United States v. Igor Pokrasov, 10 Cr 875 (RJD), a complex Medicaid/Medicare fraud case. I have attached hereto for Your Honor's review, a copy of the ECF bounce entered on May 3, 2012 in Pokrasov. This is my only present trial commitment through the end of the year. My next trial commitment is January 7, 2013, before Judge Gershon in connection with United States

v. Alex Zaretser, 10 Cr 771 (NG). And, that trial is anticipated to last about a month.

The Pokrasov trial will conclude before the end of the month of September. I am most respectfully asking Your Honor for some time after the Pokrasov trial concludes to resume my preparation for Mr. Miller's trial. Hopefully, a trial date in November, or later, if that is convenient with this Court. Mr. Miller obviously consents to an exclusion under the Speedy Trial Act until any new trial date.

The government has consented to this adjournment request.

Respectfully yours,

/JRF/

James R. Froccaro, Jr.
